Good news for Vintage Port enthusiasts: Taylor group that includes such top names as Taylor Fladgate, Fonseca and Croft has declared the 2009 vintage. Taylor's CEO Adrian Bridge praised 2009 for "wines of massive scale, not unlike the iconic vintage ports of the early twentieth century." Three more outstanding vintages, 2000, 2003 and 2007, are available as part of this offer. "In over three centuries of Taylor's history," Bridge added, "a sequence of great vintages like this has been very rare."

Also featured here is Taylor Fladgate's SCION, a Port that is remarkable not only for its rarity and historic significance but also for the fact that, after 155 years of ageing in cask, it is in perfect condition. Presented in a hand-blown crystal decanter, this rare wine is accompanied by a limited-edition book which tells the story of SCION and its remarkable journey through history. Availability is extremely limited. Order today.
